From the rear cover..

A modern day echo of the original classic by Charles Dickens, An American Christmas Carol is a story of conversion and redemption set in the Chicago of the 1980's.

Michael Barron is an up-and-coming lawyer whose only interests are power and money, until providence declares otherwise.

His life changes abruptly one late December night, when he rescues Sarah, an elderly concentration camp survivor, from the cold. Sarah decides to repay him by opening up her past in order to impart the Four Great Truths.

But will she be able to teach Michael the truth before he is lost forever to materialism, greed, and cynicism?

Thus the journey begins...a journey to discover The Four Great Truths of life..
